S.B. CIVIL WRIT PETITION NO. 593/2006.
(ARJUN SINGH & ORS. VS. STATE & ORS.)

DATE OF ORDER : 08.08.2007.

HON'BLE MR. GOVIND MATHUR, J.

Mr. Sajjan Singh for the petitioners.

The Collector, Pali by the order dated 30.09.2005, while accepting a revision petition preferred by the petitioners under Section 97 of the Rajasthan Panchayati Raj Act, 1994, set aside the Resolution dated 27.06.1999 relating to allotment of land to respondent Rameshwar Das, directed the Gram Panchayat to decide the issue afresh by affording an opportunity of hearing to the parties concern.

The contention of counsel for the petitioners, while giving challenge to the order aforesaid, is that the Collector erred while remanding the matter to Gram Panchayat for disposal of the issue afresh. According to counsel for the petitioner, the revisional authority acted beyond the jurisdiction vested with it while remanding the matter to the Gram Panchayat.

I do not find any substance in the contentions so raised. The order impugned is quite a just order and that does not require interference of this Court under Article 227 of the Constitution of India. Under Section 97 of the Act of 1994, the revisional authority is having ample power to remit the matter coming before him for reconsideration.

The writ petition, for the reasons above, is dismissed.
